formed a partnership with Mr. John F. Allen, of Richmond, young Pope was taken into the New York office, and subsequently became connected with the Richmond house. When, in 1888, the firm of Allen & Ginter was incorporated, Mr. Pope was made Vice-President; and when, in 1890, the firm was absorbed by the American Tobacco Company, he was elected first Vice-President. He was President of the Crystal Ice Company, of the James River Marl and Bone Phosphate Company, of the Powhatan Clay Manufacturing Company, and Vice-President of a number of local business concerns. Mr. Pope was a man of few words, was direct and pointed in all his utterances, had a high sense of business integrity, and was a friend who could be relied upon to perform his duty to the utmost. His charities were numerous and generous.

CHARLES E. WORTHAM was a native of Amherst county, Va., having been born there about 1831. He came to Richmond when quite a young man and accepted a clerkship in the book store of Mr. Charles Wortham. After a short time he entered the insurance business under the firm name of Wortham & Wyatt. He was subsequently chosen Secretary of the Old Dominion Insurance Company, and was at the same time the Richmond Agent of the New York Life Insurance Company. At the outbreak of the war Mr. Wortham surrendered all of his business interests and became a member of the ambulance corps, doing active service during the entire four years of hostilities. After the surrender he returned to Richmond and entered the banking and insurance business with Mr. Isaac Davenport, Jr. He was a member of the Board of Directors of the First National and Union Savings Banks, and was a prominent Mason. He was one of the charter members of the Westmoreland Club, and was at one time its President. In 1873 Mr. Wortham represented Henrico county and the City of Richmond in the State Senate, serving one term. He was twice married, first to Miss Dey, of Norfolk, Va., and secondly to Mrs. Mary W. Tupper. Mr. Wortham died May 27, 1896.

NOTE.—Sketches of Geo. Brown Goode, Wm. H. English, Charles H. Cocke, Major J. T. Doswell and Robt. Garrett are, for lack of space, deferred to the April number of the Magazine.
